A young Indian boy carves a little canoe with a figure inside and names him Paddle-to-the-Sea. Paddle's journey, in text and pictures, through the Great Lakes to the Atlantic Ocean provides an excellent geographic and historical picture of the region.

The journey begins in one of the most northern streams in America. "Paddle to the Sea", the name of his canoe travels along the water's edge, where the tides and storms direct. While passing settlements and landscapes, both beautiful and serene, as well as wild and treacherous, the little canoe encounters many adventures.

Paddle-to-the-Sea is a 1941 children's book, written and illustrated by American author/artist Holling C. Holling and published by Houghton Mifflin. It was recognized as a Caldecott Honor Book in 1942. The film Paddle to the Sea, based on this book but omitting many details, was produced by the National Film Board of Canada in 1966, directed by Bill Mason. It was nominated for an Oscar. A water park based on the book was opened in 2016 in the town of Nipigon, where the fictional journey begins.

Paddle To The Sea Sandpiper

Paddle to the sea is a book I really liked as a child in the 1950s and 60s. it is a simple story of a Native Canadian who carves a small figurine and sends it off with the hope/intention that it will find it's way to the open ocean through the waterways of Canada/North America.
