How to educate it so you don't need to worry about pee, growl, barks or anything but a good and healthy dog. Here is where this book can help you. The number one skill for any entrepreneur or business owner is the ability to sell.

Why? Because sales = income. Yet, many fail financially not because they do not have great ideas or even good work ethic, but typically because they don't know how to, refuse to, are afraid to, or don't think it is important to know how to sell. Sales-Dogs was written as the very first of the Rich Dad Poor Dad "how-to" Advisory series to teach in a very fun and impactful way how to overcome the fears, the myths and the obstacles to selling your products, services or yourself. It then teaches a simple, time-proven process of selling that will generate great income in most any business. The reader will learn the five most important selling skills to master, how to overcome any objection, manage a territory and much more. The book quickly debunks the idea that you have to be an overly aggressive "attack dog" to be successful. It uses the metaphor of "man's best friend" to say that a great sales person is like a loyal, persistent and lovable canine. It stipulates that there are five different "breeds" or personalities of Sales-Dogs that can each make a lot of money by playing to its strength. You will learn how to identify, maximize and train to that strength and also how to teach others on your team to do the same. While the book is fun and engaging, it also dives deep into the personal development issues that block a person's ability to generate income and how to overcome them. The book is perfect for first time salespeople, individuals who are uncomfortable with the notion of "selling", those who need to train others to sell and those who want to simply get better quicker.

Trick-or-treat! It's Halloween, but Pepper the Peppy Puppy can't seem to find her boy. Will she find him before the night is over? Have you ever felt that it was impossible to be a salesperson? According to David Anderson, America's Millennial Business Coach, everyone is a salesperson, but most just don't know it! Pitch Close Upsell Repeat is designed to help even the most timid individual approach sales and business as a game to be played with passion, intensity and fun. Having spent a more than 2 decade career in entertainment and marketing, David's knowledge comes from both a practical and innovative standpoint. David has worked with businesses from all walks of life. As a salesperson and social media guru, David has generated millions of dollars in revenue for amazing brands ranging from Nutrisystem to Les Brown to iHeartMedia and Radio One. It's those successes that inspired him to create <http://iBrandUniversity.com> to help entrepreneurs grow and profit from their businesses. If you're willing to do the work, David will bring you into his thought processes and numerous experiences in business, illustrating his 4 step plan for success: Pitch, Close, Upsell, Repeat

Is your special friend always waiting at the door for you with a wagging tail and an unconditional look of happiness? Is your favorite lap warmer always ready to keep you company on dark and stormy nights? No matter if your friend is furry, finned, feathered, or leathered, no doubt your pet plays an important role in your life and your family. In fact, your pet may be your family. But after the inevitable happens and you sob your last good-bye, will you see your pet again? In Heaven? Does your pet have a soul? Will your pet go to Heaven? This fun and light-hearted look at a seriously sad subject reveals many perspectives about Spot's stairway to Heaven, Fluffy's final resting place, and birds of Paradise. Will your pet rabbit rest in peace, or will your fish float forever in the septic tank? In addition to their own blend of passionate and compassionate diva dialogue, the four writers quote devoted pet owners, clergy, friends, family, and even those who just aren't "pet people." From the variety of perspectives and opinions, this is a heart-warming, tail-wagging conversation sure to keep you smiling from now until then...

'I found with years of human/dog training and reading many books on training, sometimes, the simplest things were missing from the human/dog instructions. Answering many calls to assist families and their dogs, I decided to put all the 'most asked for' solutions in one place.' Roxane Knott This is a guide to help you with your new, or long standing, Canine family member. If you are delving into the adventures of dog ownership or looking for ways to get over those doggie hurdles with some straight talking then this is a great book for you. It gives you all the simple, little tips to fill in the missing spaces of those major dog training techniques.

benefits that your services can provide to owners and their dogs, you realize that you must be an effective salesperson to have a successful business. Author John Visconti takes the mystery and fear out of the selling process in this book which belongs in the toolbox of every professional dog trainer. Meet your own personal sales coach!

Thank Goodness! At long last, an approach that focuses on the people-motivating aspects of the business of pet dog training. It doesn't matter how good you are at training dogs, if you lack sales savvy and people skills for promotion, few dogs will benefit from your experience and expertise. I love this book. I really like the style—well written, catchy and always straight to the point.

Dr. Ian Dunbar, Founder of The Association of Professional Dog Trainers.

In this playful and incredibly enjoyable book, John Visconti shows readers many qualities that they already possess to sell their training services effectively and with heart. No longer will “sales” be a dirty word and trainers who read and apply the wisdom from this book will relish in their confidence and happily realize their goal of to helping more dogs and owners.

Malena DeMartini-Price, author of Treating Separation Anxiety in Dogs

I really enjoyed the humor, personal stories, quotes and resources that this book provides. It's packed with wonderful thought provoking topics that give the reader nuggets to think about and apply to their own business. John coaches you to think of sales in a more inviting and less intimidating light. I truly appreciate his approach and highly recommend this book to dog professionals who have a less than desirable CER about "sales." The more comfortable we all are in our business the more dogs and families we can reach!

Jennifer Shryock, B.A., CDBC Founder & Director of FPPE

Most of us dog trainers are absolutely terrible salespeople! We tend to let our compassion get the better of us, and we have a hard time realizing what we are really worth. John's book is an excellent handbook for recognizing our value and selling ourselves effectively!

Michelle Douglas, CPDT-KA, CDBC, Past President, APDT

Author John Visconti, CPDT-KA is the owner of Rising Star Dog Training Services; Rising Star Dog Training; Dog Trainer ConneXion business management software; and Fetch More Dollars sales consulting. He lives in North Carolina with his canine companions.

The author presents his advice and techniques for developing personal salesmanship skills.

Just for a moment imagine yourself the spouse or even the parent of someone in prison. What images come to your mind? In her story, the author challenges us to think outside of our own mindsets. Through the writer's eyes you will see glimpses of what it is really like from the outside looking in. It is her hope that as you read you will not only recognize things that have "imprisoned" you but that you will be set free from those things. Isaiah 61:1 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound... -----

Increasing your sales revenue is really simple. It's just a matter of getting your wait staff to say the right things, in the right way, at the right time - every time! This book is the definitive guide to show you how. How would you like your worst performing waiter to sell like one of the best waiters in the world? They can with what you will learn in this book! Are you literally leaving money on the table? Does your wait staff cost you sales by acting as order takers and plate carriers? Would you like to have wait staff who are able to increase your bill size without coming across as robots or sleazy sales people? Running a restaurant is hard work. Selling at the Table makes it much, much easier. As your staff starts to implement the seven simple steps contained within this book, you will see your restaurant, café, hotel or bar's profits grow. Your staff will produce better sales revenue and life will become a whole lot easier for you. Because you have increased revenue, you will be able to recruit and retain great staff who will further increase your profits as they embrace Selling at the Table as the culture in your venue. Rest assured, you'll not be asking your staff to do anything more than they are doing already. You'll just be getting them to do it the right way - to say the right things, in the right way, at the right time - every time!

Nineteen-year old CeCe Mackenzie leaves Virginia for Nashville with not much more to her name than a guitar, a Walker Hound named Hank Junior and an old car she'd inherited from her grandma called Gertrude. But Gertrude ends up on the side of I-40 in flames, and Nashville has never seemed farther away. Help arrives in the form of two Georgia football players headed for the Nashville dream as well. When Holden Ashford and Thomas Franklin stop to offer CeCe and Hank Junior a ride, fate may just give a nod to serendipity and meant to be.

Reveals how to actually speed up and maximize the return on investments to achieve total financial independence.

Dogs now dominate the $55 billion a year pet business, with nearly 40 percent of American households owning a total of 78.2 million dogs. Dog products, dog services, dog admiration--okay, let's call it dog worship--has become totally over the top, with doggie treadmills, dog swimming pools, caffeine-free doggie java, dog massage, dog perfume, aromatherapy, hair coloring, and, yes, dog tattoos that would have seemed outlandish a generation ago when applied to your everyday household Rover. But Rover isn't called Rover anymore: he's called Rufus. Or Lola, according to the Tumblr Hipster Puppies. In fact, all Top Ten Dog Names are people names. And the canine Rufus doesn't stay home alone all day; he goes to Doggie Daycare. Eats brightly frosted martini-shaped dog-gie treats. Wears designer tutus. Gets married on the beach. Has...Well, you'll see. With hilarious full-color photos throughout, Rabid holds a humorous mirror up to our dog-centered society, helping us laugh at our own behavior and at the even-more-insane antics of all those other dog people. Sit. Stay. LEAD! The Presidogs of the United States of Pawmerica is a re-imagining of history, telling the story of the forty-four men who have led this nation as if they were furry, fun-loving dogs. How would a rambunctious pooch have handled the Embargo Act of 1807? Or the Cuban Missile Crisis? Or a Civil War?! This coffee table book answers these questions, as well as provides the reader with an endless supply of historical and pawlitically charged puppy puns. Consti-CHEW-tion, anyone? Since every president is matched to a different breed of dog, this full color volume provides the reader with a concise personality profile for each represented breed. It's a great gift idea for animal lovers, history buffs, goofballs, hipsters, and children of all ages. Learn about history! Learn about dogs! All while laughing your silly head off. The Presidogs of the United States of Pawmerica is a quirky, educational and thoroughly adogable read for the whole family!

What do you do after life has handed you a wake-up call? Author Brian Seth Hurst experienced a significant professional setback, but, rather than "soldier on," he recognized it as a profound opportunity to acknowledge a deeper foundation at work in his life. It is the affirmation that there is sheer power in what one believes, and, for better or worse, those beliefs are the foundation for the reality we create. The question of "Why?" began a thirty-day inquiry and adventure for Hurst into the unknown. The result is the book W H O L E - a collection of powerful essays that examine how beliefs serve, or do not serve, us in our lives, how those beliefs can be transformed to change our circumstances, and the power of the ultimate connection to Source. What do you do after life has handed you a wake-up call? If you decide to remain awake, then you begin looking at your life. W H O L E is your companion as you review the past, balance all areas of your life, and begin to create anew. W H O L E prompts a very personal, progressive, and conscious examination of concepts and belief systems in every area of your life, ranging from relationships, work and time, to money, the environment, morality and your purpose. It asks provocative and thoughtful questions that lead to understanding. How do you reconcile everything that has happened and is happening in your life with the one you truly want? The good and the bad, the joy and the hurt, the wins and the losses - all those parts form the experience of your life and your identity. Yet, you are much greater than the sum of all those parts. W H O L E allows you to make sense of the pieces of your life as part of the greater being that is You. W H O L E presents you with the opportunity to reconcile the past, arrive wholly connected in the present, and create your future. W H O L E literally answers the question, "What was I thinking?" "To know "whole" in the duality of your reality, you must know broken. To know broken is to recognize that you are, always have been, and always will be WHOLE."

Book 1 of The Naturalist combines historical fantasy with thrilling adventure and a touch of Renaissance romance.

Self-Awareness is often viewed as the cornerstone for personal and leadership successes. By having a conscious knowledge of your character, and understanding your natural tendency to act in a way that energises and recharges you throughout the day, making achievements in life would simply be a walk in the park. Unfortunately, such a simple pathway to achievement is often obscured by the general consensus such as: "what a best salesman should do", and "how a great leader should behave". Attempting to fit into the "mould of a great leader" or the "mould of a good salesman", would not only prevent you from achieving your goals, it would make you appear cringey, or worse, drain away all your energy, leaving you feeling tired, and questioning the purpose of your existence and your goals in life. Motivational trainings, time management trainings, etc, have their values, however, without first having an elevated self-awareness, attempting to follow the "steps" and "to-do lists" in those trainings would likely result in frustration and end up stopping the practices altogether. Anybody who exhibits the above "symptoms", or feel that you could have attained greater heights in your career and life, but for whatever reasons, unable to do so, this book is tailored specially for you. In this book, you will discover that everyone is unique, and that by understanding your own unique talents, and leveraging on it, you can achieve your greatness in your own unique and energising way. This book adopts a practical approach that focuses on helping the readers elevate their self-awareness, with the main objective of empowering them to achieve their personal and leadership successes. "Self-awareness doesn't stop you from making mistakes, but it allows you to learn and correct them." - Prof. Roy Ling

(LEAD Program Instructor) "The essence of good strategy is being aware of your strengths and your rival's weaknesses and applying your strengths against your rival's weaknesses." - Prof. Ishtiaq Pasha

Mahmood (Head of Department and Professor Strategy & Policy, NUS Business School) "Your strengths are the foundation to your greatness. Find ways to play to your strengths." - Coach Jason Ho (Performance coach)
